

Please do not strike down the Indiana No-Call List. Quality of life away from a constantly ringing telephone is so much better now that we have it. Banks and legitimate businesses can still contact their potential customers by mail to solicit their business and mail, unlike a ringing phone, can be opened when convenient.